NON-COMPLIANCE SUMMARY

Violation Number Nature of Noncompliance

I. Violation of Mandatory Condition: The defendant shall not commit another federal, state, or local crime.

According to a Lincoln Police Department incident report dated December 27, 2022, Mr. Sanders and his girlfriend, Lyndsay Jones visited a casino in Lincoln, RI, on December 26, 2022. Police responded to the casino for a report of a possible domestic disturbance. Ms. Jones reported she and Mr. Sanders got into a verbal argument as Mr. Sanders refused to leave the casino. Mr. Sanders stated he was trying to get away from Ms. Jones but she would not leave him alone. Mr. Sanders admitted he grabbed Ms. Jones and she fell to the ground. Ms. Jones was adamant that she did not want Mr. Sanders arrested. Ms. Jones was not injured and refused medical attention. Evidence of this violation will be supported by the Lincoln Police Department incident report and officer testimony.

II. Violation of Standard Condition: The defendant shall not leave the judicial district without the permission of the court or probation officer.

According to a Lincoln Police Department incident report dated December 27, 2022, Mr. Sanders visited a casino in Lincoln, RI, on December 26, 2022. Mr. Sanders admitted to visiting Twin River Casino in Lincoln, RI. Evidence of this violation will be supported by the Lincoln Police Department incident report and officer testimony.

U.S. Probation Officer Action: To date, Mr. Sanders has not been formally charged with a crime. Probation has reviewed the travel policy with Mr. Sanders and advised him to discontinue unauthorized out of state travel, which he has agreed. Probation also spoke directly with Ms. Jones who denied being fearful of Mr. Sanders and denied domestic violence within the relationship. Due to the nature of the non-compliance, the U.S. Probation and Pretrial Services Office is not seeking any action from the Court at this time. We will continue to monitor him closely, keep in contact with Ms. Jones and report any further instances of non-compliance to the Court.
